BUSES ON BROADWAY

A BUSBY BERSERKLY PRODUCTION

A black and white illustration of a carousel with twelve buses as the ride cars. The buses are arranged in two rows of six, facing outwards. A central sign reads "A BEVY OF BEAUTEOUS BUSES!". The buses are stylized with large windows and multiple wheels. The entire scene is enclosed in a circular frame.

A black and white cartoon illustration showing a line of men in trench coats and glasses walking down a set of stairs. The man in the foreground is waving. A speech bubble above them says "TOGETHER, HOW FAR WILL THEY GO?". The style is reminiscent of mid-20th-century political cartoons.

A black and white illustration featuring a large number of stylized buses, all with "BROADWAY" written on their destination signs. The buses are packed closely together, creating a sense of a busy, crowded street. In the center of the image, a rectangular sign with a black border contains the text "DESTINATION FUN!" in a bold, sans-serif font. The background is dark, and there are white, curved, smoke-like or steam-like shapes rising behind the buses, adding to the dynamic and energetic feel of the scene.
