

My
mother-in-law
doesn't like...

My appearance

She also wants
me to wear
different clothes.
Clothes more...
like hers.

My mother-in-law has no other standards besides herself.
She wishes her son had let her pick him a wife...

from the homeland...

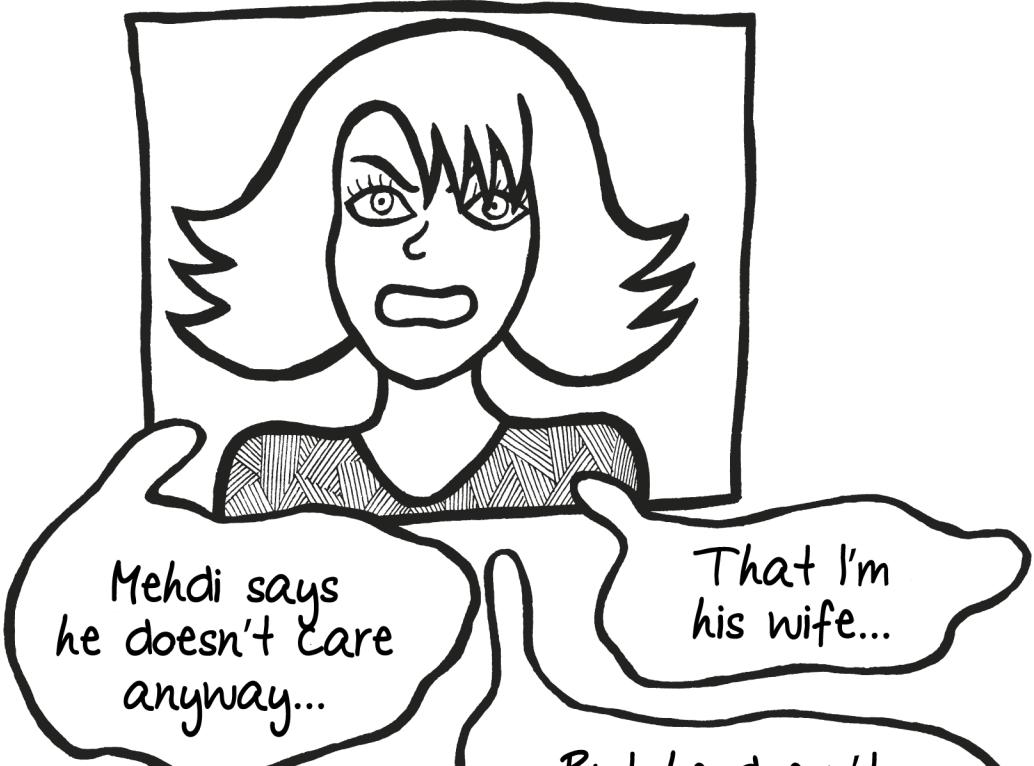

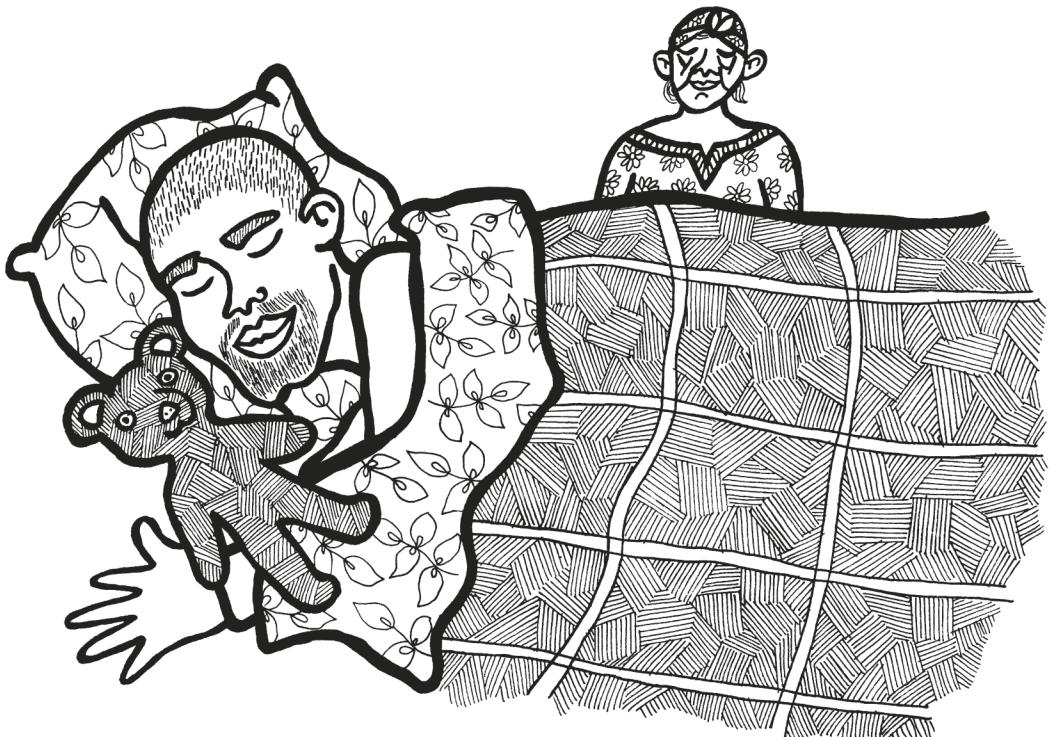

Someone closer
to her standards
of beauty.

More feminine,
she says.

That's when
I realized
that, deep down,
my husband's
still a little boy!

Armed with Mehdi's consent,
she decided to give me a «makeover».

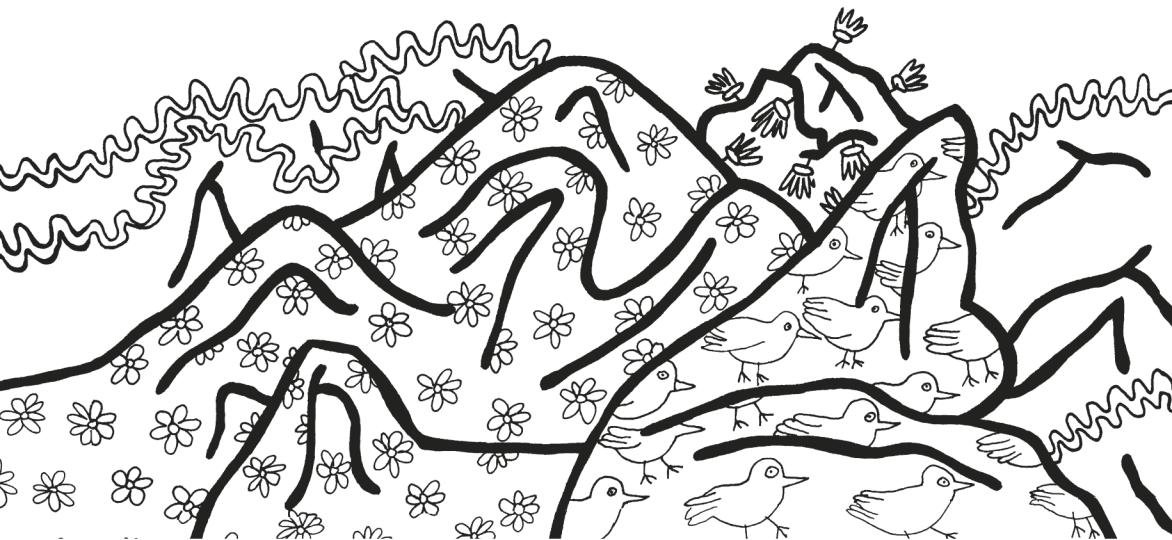

The family

was having a wedding...

The perfect
occasion.

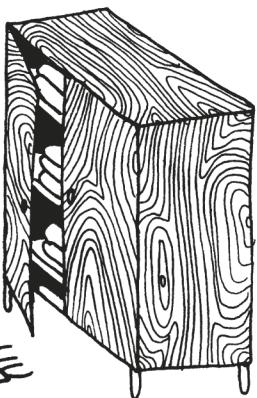

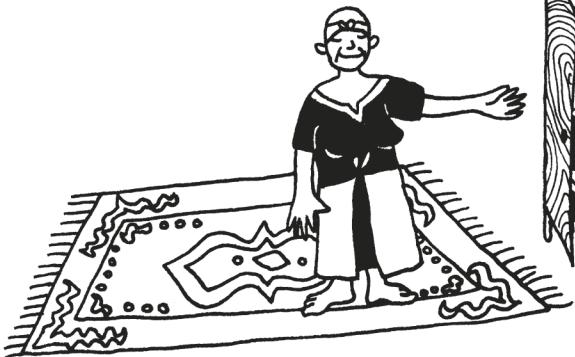

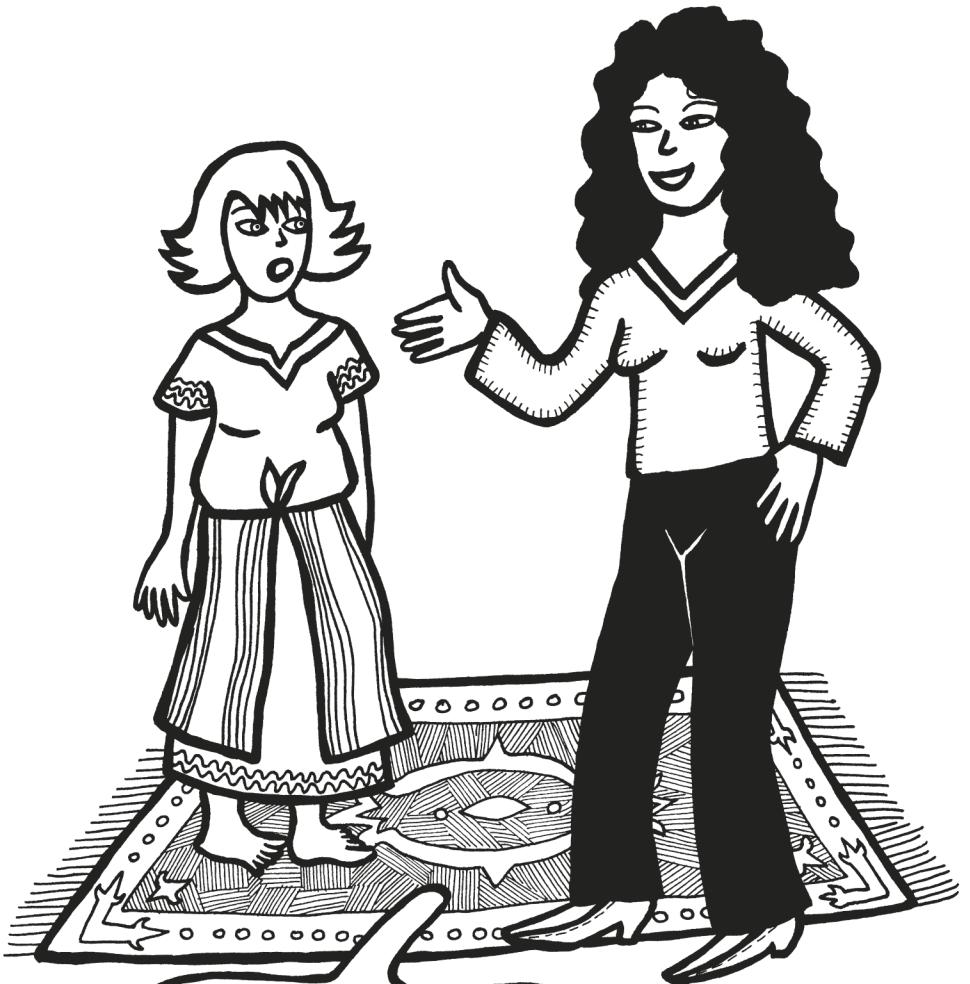

She tried out a Kabyle dress on me and suggested a selection of costume jewelry...

Mehdi's sister

...which I rejected, stifling my screams.

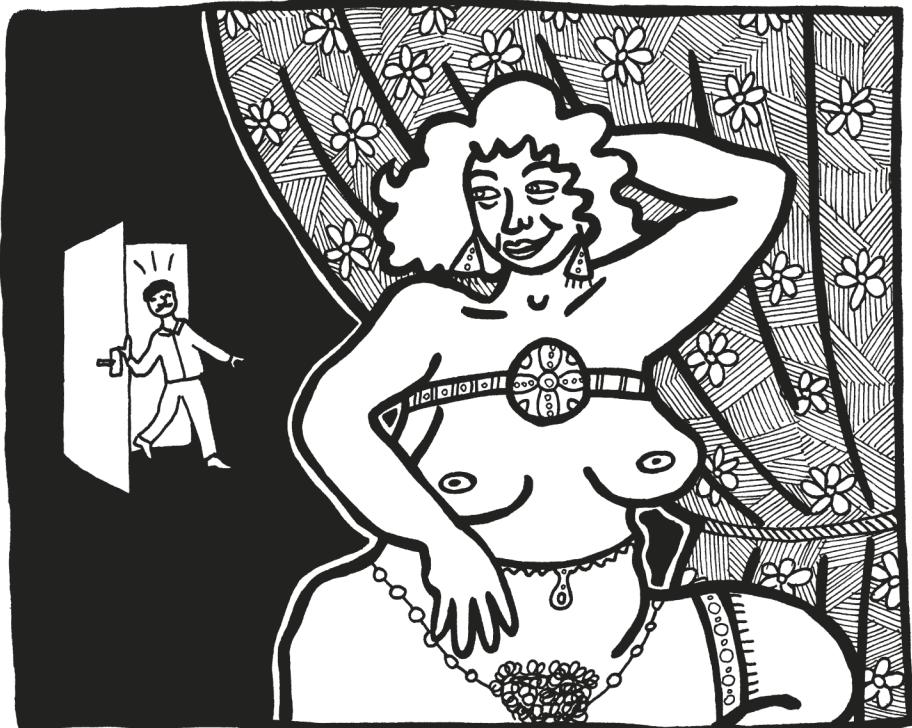

But old ladies are
the only ones who
wear stuff like that
these days!

Once,
I caught
an aunt of mine
wearing nothing
but her jewels.

The wedding day...

I went for
a pretty dress
and a pair of rather
discreet earrings,
hoping Mehdi
would spot me.

You don't have to wear
those right now, you know.
They're just for dancing.

I really walked right into
that one!
